

Fem@il in this issue

Watch Out women with disabilities are on the move	1
Mental Illness calls rise one to ten	2
Nana Naps	2
NSW Women's Refuge Movement	3
Some thoughts re: smacking children	4
Hooked on books	5
Discrimination & unlawful dismissal	5
Michelle Bachelet Unmarked Police car warning	6
TSWS	7
Historical Grounds for Gender Inequality	8
Sistas inside	9
Kids corner	9
The attrition of sexual offences	10
Debts and relationships	10-11
Violence against women rife in war-torn countries	12
Young children in sport	13
Thank You	13

Fem@il is an outreach publication of the Tweed Shire Women's Services Inc. 15 church lane (behind the Police Station).
murwillumbah nsw 2484
PO Box 407
murwillumbah nsw 2484
ph (02) 6672 4188
fax (02) 6672 5279
email: admin@tswomen.org.au
www.tswomen.org.au

June - July 06
Vol 12 No 15
OSSN NO 1038-0043

DISCLAIMER: The Tweed Shire Women's Service and Fem@il's Production team do not necessarily agree with the opinions and comments expressed in fem@il. The fem@il production team reserves the right not to publish all articles submitted.

The Tweed Shire Women's Service is funded by the Department of Community Services

WELCOME

Hi again,

As promised this edition features our new column YourVoice filled with your feedback. We pride ourselves in providing the women of the Tweed with an informative magazine filled with current events and local activities so take advantage of this new column to let us know what you think. We view it all as constructive!

This edition is packed with a great array of information we have part two of Vickys Gender Inequality article, some interesting facts on the effects of smacking, information about changing industrial relations laws, and the first of a series of horrific articles about how women are often exploited and tortured during times of war. The quality of the articles we are receiving is fantastic and we thank all those who have contributed to fem@il over the years and we encourage all women to send in their thoughts, comments, poetry, artwork etc. Our production dates are located on page 11 so take the opportunity to get involved!

Have you been around for a while? We are updating our herstory, do you have any pics or stories to tell? Give Amy a call.

Remember that fem@il can be picked up at Tweed Shire Women's Services Resource Centre at 15 Church Lane Murwillumbah. While you are picking one up feel free to have a look around, meet staff, browse our library, use the free broadband internet or just have a cuppa. All women and children are welcome. And remember to check out the back of the magazine for groups running at our service.

Cheers Rosemary and Amy

your voice

Dear Editor

I think your magazine is an impressive mix of very useful and well-researched information on laws, rights and issues combined with articles to help mum's deal with helping their kids grow up to be great members of society. I really enjoyed reading it!
Sue

Dear Editor

When a disclaimer is indicated at the start of the magazine there should be no need to add it at the end of other articles such as the Humber Mother article.
Anonymous (phone message)

Dear Editor

I have been reading Fem@il for more than two years and I would like to congratulate you on a wonderful magazine which continues to impress and improve. Thank you for providing a magazine which caters for all women on all levels.
Anonymous Kyogle

your voice